

OH Learning Module W503 Noise – Measurement and its Effects

Internationally Recognised Qualification

Topics Covered:

- Physics of Noise
- Risk Assessment
- Hearing Protection
- Human Response
- Sampling Methods
- Environmental Noise
- Machinery Noise
- Controls
- Education & Training

- Based on competency requirements of AS/NZS 1269.:2005 – Occupational Noise Management – Measurement & Assessment of Noise Emission and Exposure
- The course is internationally recognised OHTA W503 Noise – Measurement and its Effects provided by approved training providers under the OHTA scheme.
- Counts towards internationally recognised qualifications in occupational hygiene & professional development points for certified hygienists.
- Optional exam provides internationally recognised certificate of competency in occupational noise assessment.

Presented by NZOHS including internationally certified occupational hygienists.

Christchurch, 29th October – 2nd November 2018

at Chemsafety Facilities

Unit 5B, 303 Blenheim Road, Upper Riccarton Christchurch

Course fees: $1700.00 for 5 day course – NZOHS members
 $1900.00 for 5 day course – Non members
 + $350 for OHTA exam

For additional information on the OHTA scheme visit: www.ohlearning.com

Supported by

